Statement

“In my youth I became interested in iconography, and later realized - the spirit blows where it wills. Now I am free artist and follow the inspiration.

I had been a main artist and a teacher an Icon Painting workshop for 5 years. I spent more than 25 years for religious iconography, and now intend to spend more time for modern painting. I am interested in the line between figurative and abstraction, the correlation of the figure and phone, patterns presence.

The traditional technique of icon painting and restoration allowed me to study on practice the method of the old masters. The passion of the eastern calligraphy helped conceive of “wabi-sabi” - the beauty of natural and artlessness. I am a follower of simplicity and clarity, typical for the mid century design.

In my picture I explore the dimension of irony, humor and melancholy.”
